MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Phillip Williams ("Williams") has submitted several documents in connection with his effort to obtain federal habeas relief under 28 U.S.C. §2254¹ from the state court conviction and sentence on which he is now serving an 18-year term at the Pinckneyville Correctional Center ("Pinckneyville"): his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus ("Petition"), his Application To Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees ("Application") and his Motion for Appointment of Counsel ("Motion"). This memorandum order addresses each of Williams' filings.

First as to the Application, it seems that Williams is unaware of the exceedingly modest filing fee (only $5) that is required in habeas cases. Although he had no balance in his Pinckneyville trust fund account as of the computerized runoff date of April 12, 2000, the Application reflects that he has a prison job that pays him $15 a month. Accordingly the Application is denied, and Williams is ordered to pay the $5 filing fee on or before June 25, 2000 (that time period should allow his account to be replenished by his current payroll deposit), failing which the Petition will be dismissed.

This order turns to the Petition itself. According to Petition ¶II.1, it appears to have been filed within the one-year time frame specified by Section 2244(d). As for the merits of Williams' claims (without any substantive determination, or any implication of one, being intended as to the ultimate viability of one or more of those claims), this Court orders--in accordance with Rule 4 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts--the respondent Warden to file an answer or other pleading on or before July 7, 2000.

Finally, the Motion improperly responds "N/A" to the question in that form as to what efforts Williams has made to retain counsel to represent him. That nonresponse is contrary to the teaching from our Court of Appeals, which requires that every pro se litigant who seeks to obtain appointed counsel must identify the efforts that have been made on his or her own in that regard. In any event, however, any decision as to the appointment of counsel would be premature until this Court has had an opportunity to see the nature of the response to the Petition. Accordingly the Motion is denied, without prejudice to its renewal (in proper form) after the response to the Petition is in hand.
